

Noon Sakinah — Izhar (Clarity)

■ This is a study companion for your Tajweed course. Each bullet point is a key concept from the video lecture. Review these pointers before or after each lesson.

Understanding Noon Sakinah

- Noon Sakinah = the letter Noon (■) with sukoon (no vowel): ■■
- Also applies to Tanween: double damma (■), double kasra (■), double fatha (■)
- When Noon Sakinah or Tanween meets the NEXT letter, one of 4 rules applies
- The 4 rules: Izhar, Idgham, Iqlab, Ikhfa
- These rules appear thousands of times in the Quran — mastering them transforms recitation

Rule 1: Izhar — Clear Pronunciation

- Izhar (■■■■■■■■■■) = pronounce the Noon CLEARLY
- Occurs when Noon Sakinah/Tanween is followed by one of 6 THROAT LETTERS:
Hamza (■) Ha (■) Ayn (■) Haa (■) Ghayn (■) Kha (■)
- Mnemonic: ■■■■■ ■■■■■ ■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■
- The Noon is pure, clean, full — no nasal blending, no concealment

Why Izhar with Throat Letters?

- Noon (■) is articulated by the tongue tip
- Throat letters (■ ■ ■ ■ ■) are articulated FAR away in the throat
- There is no natural tendency to merge — the distance prevents blending
- This is why the Noon remains perfectly clear

Quranic Examples — Izhar

- ■■■■ ■■■■■ — min haadin (■ before ■) — say 'n' clearly then 'h'
- ■■■■■■■■■■ — an-'amta (■ before ■) — from Al-Fatiha (verse 7)
- ■■■■ ■■■■■ — man aamana (■ before ■) — 'n' fully clear before Hamza
- ■■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■■ — 'aleemun hakeemun (tanween before ■) — clear 'n' sound
- ■■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■■ — ghafoorun haleemun (tanween before ■) — same rule

Practice Exercises

- Read Surah Al-Fatiha and identify ■■■■■■■■■■ — practice Izhar
- Read Surah Al-Baqarah v286 — count all Izhar occurrences
- When you see ■■ followed by ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ — pause, say Noon clearly
- Common mistake: adding a nasal 'ng' sound — avoid this completely
- Test: cover translation, find all Izhar in one page of Quran

Quick Reference — Izhar

- TRIGGER: ■■ or ■■ ■■ ■■ followed by: ■ ■ ■ ■ ■
- ACTION: Pronounce Noon CLEARLY — no nasal, no merging
- SOUND: Like saying 'n' in English clearly (an + hamza, an + ha)
- FREQUENCY: Less common than Ikhfa but very visible in Quran
- SIGN IN MUSHAF: No special mark — just recognize the 6 letters
