

RULE: Passive voice: past = change vowels to u-i. Present = yuf'alu (yu prefix + fatha before last letter).

Past Passive Formation

Active	Passive	Meaning Change
كُتِبَ (he wrote)	كُتِبَ (it was written)	a→u-i vowel change
فُتِحَ (he opened)	فُتِحَ (it was opened)	same pattern
خُلِقَ (he created)	خُلِقَ (it was created)	applies to all Form I
نُزِلَ (descended)	نُزِلَ (was sent down)	Form II passive

Present Passive Formation

Active Present	Passive Present	Meaning
يَكْتُبُ (he writes)	يُكْتُبُ (it is written)	yu + fatha before last letter
يَخْلُقُ (he creates)	يُخْلَقُ (it is created)	same pattern

Quranic Passive Voice

Arabic	Meaning	Reference
وَمَا يَكْتُبُ لَكُم مِّنْ شَيْءٍ	What is prescribed for you	Al-Baqarah 2:183
وَمَا يَخْلُقُ لَكُم مِّنْ شَيْءٍ	What is created weak	An-Nisa 4:28
وَمَا يَفْتَحُ لَكُم مِّنْ شَيْءٍ	The sky was opened	An-Naba 78:19

★ وَمَا يَكْتُبُ لَكُم مِّنْ شَيْءٍ — the doer (Allah) is omitted. Passive conveys: it was prescribed (by the supreme authority)

★ When Quran uses passive for divine actions, it adds reverence — the doer is obvious (Allah)
