

Noon Sakinah — Idgham (Merging)

■ This is a study companion for your Tajweed course. Each bullet point is a key concept from the video lecture. Review these pointers before or after each lesson.

What is Idgham?

- Idgham (■■■■■■■■■■) = the Noon DISAPPEARS and merges into the next letter
- Occurs when Noon Sakinah/Tanween is followed by one of 6 letters
- Mnemonic for the 6 letters: ■■■■■■■■■■ (Ya Ra Meem Laam Waw Noon)
- The Noon is completely absorbed — you only hear the following letter
- IMPORTANT: Only applies between two SEPARATE words, not within one word

Type 1: Idgham WITH Ghunnah

- Letters: Ya (■), Noon (■), Meem (■), Waw (■)
- The Noon merges AND a nasal sound (Ghunnah) is held for 2 beats
- Ghunnah = resonance through the nose — like a held 'ng' sound
- 2 beats = approximately 2 short vowels in length
- This is the MOST COMMON Idgham type in the Quran

Idgham WITH Ghunnah — Examples

- ■■■■ ■■■■■■■■ — NOT: man yaqool — YES: may-yaqool (held nasal 2 beats)
- ■■■■ ■■■■■■ — NOT: min maalin — YES: mim-maalin (held nasal)
- ■■■■ ■■■■■■■■ — NOT: min ni'matin — YES: min-ni'matin (doubled Noon)
- ■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■■■■ — NOT: hudan wa-rahmah — YES: hudan-warahmah
- ■■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■ — NOT: 'aleemun yaraa — YES: 'aleemiy-yaraa

Type 2: Idgham WITHOUT Ghunnah

- Letters: Laam (■) and Raa (■) ONLY
- The Noon merges completely but NO nasal Ghunnah is added
- Pure, clean merging — the Noon just disappears silently
- The following letter may get slight emphasis

Idgham WITHOUT Ghunnah — Examples

- ■■■■ ■■■■■■■■■■ — NOT: min rabbihi — YES: mir-rabbihi (■ absorbed into ■)
- ■■■■ ■■■■■■■■■■ — NOT: min ladunka — YES: mil-ladunka (■ absorbed into ■)
- ■■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■■ — NOT: ghafoorun raheem — YES: ghafoorur-raheem
- ■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■■■■■■■■ — NOT: hudan lil — YES: hudal-lil (Noon into Laam)

Critical Rule — No Idgham Within One Word

- Idgham NEVER applies within a single word
- Example: نون وواو — the Noon is NOT merged despite the Waw following
- Example: نون ياء — same rule applies
- Example: نون زاي — the ن doesn't cause Idgham here (one word)
- This is one of the common mistakes — remember: TWO WORDS ONLY

Quick Reference — Idgham

- TRIGGER: نون or tanween followed by نون (between two words)
- WITH ghunnah: نون نون — Noon vanishes + hold nasal 2 beats
- WITHOUT ghunnah: نون نون — Noon vanishes cleanly, no nasal
- NEVER within one word — exception to the rule
- SIGN IN MUSHAF: The next letter often has a Shadda mark (ّ)
