

Surah Al-Ikhlās — Complete Analysis

Al-Ikhlās (The Sincerity) equals one-third of the Quran in meaning. It establishes pure monotheism.

Arabic Text	Transliteration	Meaning
قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ	Qul huwallahu ahad	Say: He is Allah, the One
لِلَّاهِ سَمَدٌ	Allaahus-samad	Allah, the Eternal Self-Sufficient
لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ	lam yalid wa lam yoolad	He did not beget and was not begotten
لَا يُكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ	laa yun lahu kufuwan ahad	And none is comparable to Him

Word by Word Grammar

Word	Grammar	Notes
قُلْ	Command (jussive of قُلْ)	Say! — direct command to Prophet
هُوَ	3rd person pronoun (m)	He — refers to Allah
أَحَدٌ	Predicate, nominative	One — لِلَّهِ سَمَدٌ
لِلَّاهِ سَمَدٌ	2nd predicate or title	Self-Sufficient Master — all depend on Him
لَمْ يَلِدْ	2nd predicate or title + jussive = past negative	He did not beget — no children
لَمْ يُولَدْ	Passive jussive	Was not begotten — no parents

★ لِلَّهِ سَمَدٌ = the one who is solid, impenetrable — all creation depends on Him, He depends on nothing

★ لَمْ يَلِدْ = He has no children (refutes Christian Trinity and Arab pagan claims)

★ لَمْ يُولَدْ = He was not born (refutes all who claim Allah was created or born)

★ The Prophet ﷺ said: Recite Al-Ikhlās 3 times = equivalent to reading the whole Quran