

The Ultimate Goal — Unvoweled Classical Arabic

Classical Islamic texts — Tafseer, Fiqh, Seerah, Aqeedah — are all written WITHOUT vowel marks. This is the final frontier of Arabic literacy.

What You Need to Read Classical Texts

Skill	Why Needed	How to Build It
Grammar (all 3 books)	predicts the case of each word	Complete this course thoroughly
Vocabulary (2000+ roots)	text fills in missing vowels	Read Quran daily + use dictionary
Familiarity with genre	Different styles — tafseer vs fiqh vs Seerah	Read one book in each genre
Pattern recognition	Common phrases repeat across texts	Memorise key Quranic sentences

Recommended Reading Path

Step 1: Begin: Read Tafseer Al-Jalalain (simplest classical tafseer) with Al-Fatiha

Step 2: Then: Ibn Kathir short Surahs (Al-Ikhlās, Al-Falaq, An-Nas) with tafseer

Step 3: Then: Imam An-Nawawi's 40 Hadith in Arabic

Step 4: Then: Read the full Quran with brief Arabic tafseer (not translation)

Step 5: Advanced: Imam Al-Ghazali's Arba'een or Bidaya wal Nihaya sections

Your Achievement

- ★ You have completed all 3 books of the Madinah Arabic curriculum
- ★ You know all 10 Arabic verb forms and their meanings
- ★ You can parse any Arabic sentence and identify its grammar
- ★ You understand the Quranic language from its roots
- ★ 1400 years of Islamic scholarship is now within reach

■■■■■ ■■■■■■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■■ — My success is only through Allah. (Hud 11:88)